

ABRAHAM LINCOLN, AN HONEST RACIST WHO DID NOT FREE THE SLAVES.

Almost everything I learned in school about Abraham Lincoln was wrong. He did not free any slaves and he was an honest racist. I couldn't believe my eyes when I read the newspaper report of the interview with President Lincoln in 1862.

You can read the original here at this web site---

These are the headlines: He holds that the White and Black races cannot dwell together and that it has been his inclination for some time that Blacks should be deported to some other country.

Then just read Lincoln's short one page Emancipation Proclamation to see for yourself that he did not actually free one slave! Read the original right here on this web site---

“Not only did the document fail to free anyone, but it re-enslaved and/or condemned to continued slavery more than a half million persons. The 556,540 slaves in the Border States of Maryland, Missouri, Delaware and Kentucky were excluded, of course. But the most surprising and damaging omissions were the areas controlled by federal troops, large sections of Tennessee, Louisiana and Virginia, including cities of New Orleans and Norfolk, “all of which excepted parts,” Lincoln said, “are for the present left precisely as if this proclamation were not issued.” This meant that Lincoln...was practically re-enslaving some 500,000 slaves, some of whom were already working for wages and enjoying the first fruits of freedom.
